“ Uncle Stanley was truly a great man. He always had something nice to say about everyone, especially me. He was my friend. Uncle Stanley and Aunt Lottie were always wonderful friends to my parents. They spent a life time of enjoying each other’s company. I will forever be grateful for his presence in our lives. “Thanks Uncle Stanley. You are going to be greatly missed..And never forgotten”.

“ I met Stanley during my exchange in US, he was my Polish part during all family meetings for holidays. It was something special in his Polish language that I always felt less homesick and more safe. I can be more glad for him and his family for that beautiful time. I never met someone who loved his root’s country and never been in like Stanisław. I regret that I never showed him Poland personally, but I am glad that although I could tell him about it and show pictures. I love him as my American-Polish grandpa. Thank You for everything. Spoczywaj w pokoju, dziękuję za wszystko Stanisławie

“ My husband and I moved in next door to Stan as newlyweds and had the honor of being his neighbor for 10 years. He was there to help us welcome all 4 of our sons with love. I can remember watching him tend to his garden and apologizing for how long our grass was and he always responded by saying we had more important things to do like play with our kids. He always had a cookie for my boys and a whisky for my husband. Stan will forever be a part of our lives. God Bless.

“ Stanley loved my cheesecake recipe. At any of the doings, he wanted to make sure he would get his cheesecake. And now his nephew, Walter Voyt, still wants his cheesecake. Every time I make cheesecake, I will remember Stanley.
