“ My friend Tim. We became friends the moment we met. We laughed and giggled together. I Loved when he'd whine about being behind in cards and then win the game. Tim loved the Lord, his friends, his family and his wife. He had such a great sense of humor and childlike playfulness.

Tim, I'll miss you so much, but I'm happy that you are with my husband and your buddy Dave are in heaven together.

“ I had the opportunity to have Tim work for me at Keebler/Kellogg. Tim was always very helpful in training other employees . He was always respectful and gave me in sight on how long it would take to clean production equipment. There was one day, we had a changeover, that I needed experience help to clean it in a timely manner. Tim and one other employees clean one section by themselves and later in a meeting I recognized Tim for his efforts. At that time, he was given the name "The Golden Boy". Tim always had a smile and I really enjoyed working with Tim. He set an example for others and " The Golden Boy" really fit his work ethics.

I pray God will Bless and comfort his family. I know God will welcome his Golden Boy into his house.

“ Dear Tim, though we had a short relationship here on earth, it felt like we knew each other for a lifetime. The first time we hung out together, it was like you and Randy just fell into place as old buddies. I sensed and saw the great love and healing of God going on in your heart and life when the four of us gathered at your house the first time, in our group prayer. Little did I know that when I saw a vision of you whole, young and laughing as you ran to Jesus, that it would be so soon. You wept with joy and earnest supplication for the Lord to come and get you. Pam cared for you so intently and patiently as you walked those last, wearisome steps of the way home. Our last few suppers with you and Pam, Ileana, Randy and I, were so beautifully orchestrated by our Father around the table, living room, patio and even your sick bed, so we could see the true meaning of God ordained "fellowship" from all angles. Laughter, singing the old hymns, sharing about heaven and who you wanted to see first (Dave, of course), the fear, the agony, the tears, the memories, walking through the valley of the shadow of death, but not alone... and the blessed hope we embraced with you, is now giving us hope of seeing you whole and well again in heaven. Through much tribulation, you entered the promised land. You suffered well, my brother in Christ and now you see the other side of this life, it is good! Thank you for letting me experience the true love of a brother in the Lord. I love you as a sister and will see you in the morning. xxx Love is the greatest.
